

In Memoriam.

*In memoriam of Jennet Weir,
wife of Robert Neilson, Esq., Otonabee, who died June 11th, 1878, aged 71
years.*

*Here she had troubles more
Than most of woman kind,
Which patiently she bore
With a submissive mind ;*

*And keenly felt for all
Who had family distress :
Was sure on such to call,
Her kindness on them press.*

*In Christian precepts, true ;
In all her actions, kind ;
To feel for others—few
Like her she's left behind.*

*Her soul hath gone on high,
Her body to the ground,
Within the grave to lie
Till Gabriel's trump shall sound.*

*When all the dead shall come
From their conceal'd abode ;
Receive their final doom
Around the Throne of God.*

*With the angelic choir
She'll join in heavenly song
Her Saviour to adore,
Among the sainted throng.*
